

The City of Regina owns and operates Regina and Riverside Memorial Park Cemeteries. Cemetery staff can help you select the burial option that is right for you, whether you are pre-planning your final arrangements or purchasing at the time of need.

Regina Cemetery

Established in 1883, Regina Cemetery is one of Saskatchewan's oldest urban cemeteries. There are many historical figures buried at Regina Cemetery, including lives lost in the 1912 Regina Tornado, Spanish influenza, the North-West Rebellion and the 1935 Regina Riot. You can get lost exploring the historic grounds and reflecting on the history of our city. A limited number of interment options are available, including columbarium niches and the scattering garden.

Riverside Memorial Park Cemetery

Established in 1953, Riverside Memorial Park Cemetery provides a quiet, park-like setting not far from Wascana Lake. A wide range of traditional and cremation interment options are available for consideration, including: two ossuaries, a scattering garden, in-ground burial and outdoor and indoor columbarium niches. You can also choose from a variety of memorial options.

A Field of Honour is offered for the interment of past or present Canadian Armed Forces, paramilitary forces (R.C.M.P.) or Allied Forces.
