CROKICURL

Goal: Get the most points by shooting the rock into the centre button. Try to get the rock as close to the highest scoring circle at the end of the round.

Number of Players:
2 to 4 players.

Setup:
- Split into two teams
- Each team has four rocks of the same colour
- Each player must stay in one quadrant

How to Play Crokicurl

1. Each player takes a turn throwing a rock, starting clockwise and alternating teams and players.

2. Players use their rocks to knock their opponent's rocks out of play. The rock may be played from any point within the players quadrant. Players can place their feet against the side rail while shooting the rock.

3. No player can go into the coloured rings until all rocks have been played by both teams and scoring is being determined.

4. The next shots try to remove the other team's rocks from the playing surface. Rocks that fail to make contact are removed from the game. Each player tries to make a 20-point shot difficult for the other team.

5. The team with the most points after throwing all four rocks wins the round. The winner of the match is determined by the team who wins the most rounds, best of 1, 3, 5, 7, etc.

Scoring Points

- If a player lands in the button it is removed and set aside to count as 20 points at the end of the round.
- If a rock is halfway between rings the team will get the points from the lower scoring ring.
- If a rock is more than halfway outside of the outer ring it doesn't count.
